

RUTH BUSHKO

Joining Allan Greenberg, Architect in 2009, Ruth arrives with substantial experience in the design of homes, religious institutions, and justice facilities, as well as in historic preservation. She is a member of the Westchester/Mid-Hudson Chapter of the AIA and of the chapter Committee on Women in Architecture.

Education/Licensing

B. Arch., City College of City University of New York
B.A., DePauw University
Registered Architect, New York
LEED AP

Experience at Allan Greenberg, Architect, LLC

Ruth is currently working on a new 17,000 square-foot Georgian farmhouse with an English flavor, sited on nearly 20 acres in mid-country Greenwich, CT.

Other Professional Experience

Project architect for 16,000 sf shingle-type residence, Greenwich, CT; complete renovation of 12,000 sf neo-French residence, Purchase, NY; gut renovation of 10,000 sf 1920s Tudor residence, Greenwich, CT; new 32,000 sf colonial church, Greenwich, CT; renovation and addition to historic railway station as 14,000 sf town court facility.

Provided programming and pre-design for Federal District Courthouse, Washington, DC; responsible for the chancel renovation of an historic 1824 Congregational church in Stockbridge, MA; and served as architect for an historic preservation project, John Jay Homestead, Katonah, NY.